President's Welcome

On behalf of the Maritime Conference, I would like to give a hearty welcome to everyone. I trust that all have come with a mind to not only receive a blessing, but to be a blessing.

Come rain or shine, Jesus' promises assure us of spiritual manna enough to satisfy all. I urge everyone to take the time while on this campground to petition God for an outpouring of His Spirit. Let us take the opportunity that He has provided to sense a deeper need of His presence.

Our theme for this year is taken from Jesus' words in John 12. 32: "And I, if I be lifted up..." His promise is that His sacrifice would have a drawing power strong enough to draw all of humanity to Himself if not stubbornly resisted. Truly, what else is there in all of creation that has had the impact that His sufferings and death have had? Such love is without rival! But I believe there is another way that Jesus can be lifted up, and here's where you and I come in. Think of the spiritual impact if all who walk this campground would have only one purpose in mind, an eye for only one thing –lifting Jesus up in every thought we think, every word we speak and in every activity we engage in during this camp meeting. What joy will come to the soul whose only desire is to lift up Jesus! As our auditorium backdrop reminds us, "One interest will prevail, one subject will swallow up all others, Christ our righteousness." RH Dec. 23, 1890.

Again this year, we'll be blessed with several representatives from various institutions across our fair nation—from Canadian University College to A.D.R.A. and so many others in between. We welcome our guest speakers and thank you for allowing God to use you to speak to us. I urge everyone to give all our presenters a warm east coast welcome!

Again, welcome to everyone! We are here to serve you. Should you have any questions or need a hand to get settled in, please do not hesitate to ask. This administration, along with our team of pastors, is here to assist you in whatever way we can.

We wish everyone a blessed convocation.

John
