Let Us Now Welcome

John Mathews is an ordained minister who as a boy dreamed of becoming a country music singer. His ministry has included serving in Florida, Alabama, Iowa, Missouri, Tennessee, and Nebraska. He has conducted family finance seminars as a departmental director in the Kansas-Nebraska Conference and the Southwestern Union Conference.

John is a graduate of Southern Adventist University and holds a Doctor of Ministry degree from Andrews University. He maintains the following certifications: North American Division Stewardship Certification, Certified Stewardship Professional; (CSP) from Christian Leadership Alliance, North American Division Planned Giving and Trust Service Certification, and Certified Specialist in Planned Giving; (CSPG) California State University. His passion is teaching stewardship principles, especially as they relate to the spirituality of money management in postmodern culture.

John is married to Janice Schram Mathews, MSN, a Nurse Practitioner. They have one married daughter, Angela, and are proud grandparents. He enjoys hiking, running, playing the guitar, singing country gospel concerts, and sleeping late in the morning.

His presentations (4:00 p.m. each day beginning tomorrow) take a look at the taboo subject of money and how post modern culture has influenced our thinking towards giving, materialism and the accumulation of wealth. He promises not to ask you for any money. The conclusion deals with how your emotional intelligence impacts your relationship to Jesus, the ultimate Steward. His presentations are as follows: Preaching to the Choir, Giving in Post modern Culture, The Needle's Eye, Age of Irony, Your Emotional Brand: Trust, etc.
